ABORIGINAL DAY CELEBRATION – JUNE 14TH

With special thanks to Joelen Akitt, our Aboriginal EA, we are thrilled to shared that we will be having an Aboriginal Day Celebration on Thursday, June 14th. National Indigenous People’s Day is Thursay, June 21st, coinciding with the summer solstice.

The Government of Canada shares the following as to the importance and relevance of this day:

In cooperation with Indigenous Peoples’ national organizations, the Government of Canada designated June 21 National Indigenous Peoples Day, a celebration of Indigenous Peoples’ culture and heritage. This date was chosen because it corresponds to the summer solstice, the longest day of the year, and because for generations, many Indigenous Peoples’ groups have celebrated their culture and heritage at this time of year.

National Indigenous Peoples Day is a wonderful opportunity to become better acquainted with the cultural diversity of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples, discover the unique accomplishments of Indigenous Peoples in fields as varied as agriculture, the environment and the arts, and celebrate their significant contribution to Canadian society.

Weekly Update from Cinnabar Valley Elementary School

For our day on June 14th, the intermediate students will spend the full day rotating through stations, while the primary students will have a shorter experience, working in their stations until long recess.

All students and staff will be treated to a special lunch on this day – Indian Tacos! 🤗 These tacos will feature a beef topping; and will be dairy free (unless students choose to have cheese added).

Please send snacks and a drink with your child on this day (and an alternate main dish if you think your child may not want a taco!)

What is an Indian Taco?
Bannock or Fried bread topped with meat (like chili) and garnished with cheese. These will be homemade!

PAC MEETING TUESDAY JUNE 12

The last official PAC meeting is on Tuesday June 12th at 6:30pm. The PAC is always looking for new members to bring fresh ideas to the table. We have a very dedicated group of volunteers that support a number of initiatives in the school. They work for ALL children, not just their own! Please consider adding your voice, and a few hours of your time, to this group next year.
